REBEKAHS HAVE FINE BANQUET AT BRIDGEPORT

Music and Speeches Also Feature Close of a Membership Campaign.

BRIDGEPORT, Sept. 23.—The closing of an attendance contest which has been in sway in the Rebekah degree of the local Odd Fellows lodge here for the last few months, not only made better the attendance of the members, but allowed them to enjoy together a banquet Tuesday evening combined with a program which was especially prepared for the occasion and which only knitted closer the meaning of Oddfellowship between the local lodge and its sister organization.

The early part of the evening was taken up with the regular routine of business. That being suspended with G. V. Cornwell, chairman of the entertainment committee for the evening, announced that a program had been prepared aside from the regular one used at the meetings. The members were then treated to a mandolin-guitar duet by Misses Edna Francis and Beattie Golden, a recitation by Miss Edna Francis, and an address by the Rev. B. B. Stout, who could rightly be termed "the grand old man" of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows at Bridgeport. Mr. Stout, in his double address on "Universal Peace" and "The Rebekah Degree," made mention of the fact that peace at home meant much to having universal peace; that instead of climbing to brotherly love and justice, infernal machines are in the hills and plains of Europe dealing death to each of them who should be brothers; that "if prejudice and all other elements pertaining to it were brought to subjection, then peace on earth, good will to men would reign instead of realizing how true the verse of Lowell's where he says, 'nation wildly looks at nation'."

In discussing his second topic, the Rev. Mr. Stout spoke of how in 1840 the idea of having a sister organization was introduced in the supreme lodge, how it was hotly debated, the opposers saying that a woman could not keep a secret, and how in 1851 it was passed and the matter of forming a ritual for the degree was placed in the hands of that great good man, known to many Odd Fellows, Mr. Colfax, of the capital city. He spoke of his long membership as an Odd Fellow and a Rebekah, and how in Parkersburg while he was sick, many years ago, the kindness they showed him.

After the address by the Rev. Mr. Stout the "call to eat" was sounded and a two-course repast was enjoyed. At the close of the evening, as realized, and many expressed outwardly, that it was worth while to have been there. Those who enjoyed the evening were Misses Nellie and Edna Francis, Eva and Pansy Graves, Noy Morrison, Lena Fitzhugh, Ruby Davidson, Beattie Golden, Mrs. C. H. Taylor, Mrs. Beattie Sheets, Mrs. Hattie A. Cron, Mrs. J. H. Saurborne, Mrs. J. F. Utt, Mrs. Edna Bartlett, and Messrs. W. H. Kester, J. F. Utt, the Rev. B. B. Stout, J. H. Saurborne, W. W. Cornwell, W. Donley Taylor, G. V. Cornwell and Allen D. Fitzhugh.

FOOTBALL TEAM IS REORGANIZED

At Northview and is Now Ready to Meet Any Team in the State.

The Northview Tigers football team has been reorganized and it is practicing on Monday and Thursday evenings each week. Practically all the same men who made up the team last season are out again this fall and as the team was not scored on last season they expect to have a banner season this fall. Any one wishing to try for the team may do so by reporting to Captain Dagneaux, Henry T. Leuliette, manager of the team is anxious to schedule games with any team in the state. The Tigers will play at home or in any other city in the state. Any one wishing to schedule games with this strong team should communicate with the manager. His address is Box 131 R. F. D. No. 3, Clarksburg.

Good by is an abbreviation of an old English form of parting, "God be with you until we meet."

Important To Farmers

Through the courtesy of the Atlas Powder Company we are enabled to hold a demonstration at 1 p. m. Friday, September 24, on the farm of R. D. Mayo, between Clarksburg and Bridgeport, on the trolley line. This demonstration will include stump blowing, boulder blasting, ditch digging, subsoiling, preparing holes for tree planting and post hole digging. Farmers who expect to do any of the above named things cannot afford to miss this meeting. Don't forget the date and place.
